

Cheshire County Council

Audlem Educational Foundation

The Audlem Educational Foundation is a charitable trust that can give financial support to help school children, students and other young people undergoing training, under the age of 25.

Awards may be given for educational visits and field courses, foreign exchanges, for equipment for people in vocational training, and to assist students in higher education.

Awards can be given to families living within the Ancient Parish of Audlem, including the civil parishes of Audlem, Buerton and Hankelow, and part of Dodcott-cum-Wilkesley and Newhall.
